

SERVICES FOR STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

The Academic Resource Center provides accommodations for students with disabilities (Section 504 and ADAA accommodations) who provide appropriate documentation qualifying for such accommodations. It is the student's responsibility to inform the director of the Academic Resource Center their request for accommodations.

Equal Opportunity for Students with Disabilities

In accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act, the Fair Housing Act, and the West Virginia Human Rights Act, Alderson Broaddus University is committed to educating qualified students with disabilities. It is the policy of Alderson Broaddus University that no qualified student with a disability shall, on the basis of such disability, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or otherwise be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity provided, sponsored, offered, or required by the University. The University shall operate programs and activities in the most integrated setting appropriate. This policy is issued in compliance with the applicable laws and is intended and shall be construed to afford the protections and rights provided by those laws. Questions or concerns regarding this section should be directed to the Office of the Provost.
